Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I heard over the radio that you had a paper back called OSWALD IN NEW O[illegible] and that it could be purchased for $1.00. I am sending you .25 for post[illegible] and hope it will be enough to cover mailing.

I would appreciate this book. My brother was killed two months before the President and he had been there before also and I am trying to find out if I can put any of the circumstances together. Also a friend of [illegible] was in New Orleans and saw Oswald handing out pamphlets on a street corner. However, Oswald disappeared before he could get to him.

Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

C. Van Leuven
